WORDS

(© October 23, 2012 music by Glenn Hall & Zadik Music Words from my poem written Jan. 26, 2011)

Tuning: DADGAD Key = F
F C Gm C
	F
F	I'd like to think a word so new
I'd like to think a word so new	C
C	that every letter, every clue
where every letter, every clue	Gm
Gm	seems like a rainbow's promised hue
brings new worlds to crystal view	C
C	I'd like to think a word so new
I'd like to think a word so new
	Gm
F	where mind unfolds in moving rhythms
Like colors mixed in sunlight beams	Am
C	and thoughts enfold like countless prisms
and waters swirling in clear streams	Gm
Gm	where greed is gone and lust lies dead
Where all of nature sparkles and gleams	Am Bb
C	and all that's left inside my head are words just like in a living dream
	F
F	Words of life so pure and whole
I'd like to think a word so new	C
C	and all that glitters is pure gold that every letter, every clue	Gm
Gm	where words are life so straight and true
seems like a rainbow's promised hue	F
C	and everything means what it's s'posed to
I'd like to think a word so new	_
	F
Gm	Where words are life so pure and whole where mind unfolds in moving rhythms	C
Am	and all that glitters is pure gold and thoughts enfold like countless prisms	Gm
Gm	where words are life so straight and true
where greed is gone and lust lies dead	C F
Am Bb	and you love me and I love you and all that's left inside my head are words
